communities in the USA.

The landmark event will feature an array of musical performances that represent the multicultural and inter-faith spirit of this project. Soloist, Diana Solomon Glover, soprano from the Riverside Church of New York City, will perform as the featured guest. Special guest artists include the Morehouse College Glee Club; Cantor Deborah Numark - The Temple, Atlanta; and Ken Ford, electric Jazz violinist. Manini Mkhabela, 16 year-old South African orphaned by AIDS and supported by the Project People Foundation, will also speak at the event.

Dr. Johnnetta B. Cole, president emerita of Spelman College in Atlanta and Bennett College for Women in North Carolina, co-chairs the event with Elaine B. Alexander of the American Jewish Committee - Atlanta Chapter and Archbishop Desmond Tutu is the honorary patron. The concert and foundation have gotten major support from the Atlanta Black Jewish Coalition and local Jewish leaders such as Rabbi Sugarman of the Temple, Atlanta. This event also coincides with the 25th anniversary of the Atlanta Black-Jewish Coalition.
